

EMAP 2 / ERASMUS MUNDUS ACTIVE PARTICIPATION Vol. 2

FUTURE EMMC CONSORTIA TRAINING NEEDS

- quality assurance and evaluation measures
- meeting Erasmus Mundus requirements and expectations
- project application and project management
- adding international partners if needed
- technical aspects of students' admission (documents, procedures, how to organize application etc)
- what kind of diploma is recommended
- recommended course duration
- if diploma comprises also practical experiences and training
- financial support and granting strategy
- financial strategy for tuition fees and budgeting, the calculations or justification of the students' participation costs
- writing the proposal and preparing and managing the application process
- successful project management
- establishing partnership relations
- securing accreditation for joint programme
- legislation issues (local and European), homogenisation of ECTS / Bologna requirements, including national legal frameworks
- administration of the Erasmus Mundus project
- planning the Master Course as for Joint Degree, multiple Degree and Double Degree
- the problem of credential evaluation
- sustainability

- insurance scheme
- common examination and evaluation framework
- comparable quality assessment of provided courses inside the consortium
- documentation of the expected employability
- the role of the third-country in the programme
- joint curriculum development and joint program approval
- collaboration in student selection and course delivery, criteria for student selection
- staff mobility in curriculum development, student selection and/or course delivery
- student mobility for substantial and continuous periods of time
- good practice and major mistakes